*Re: Fidelity Information Servs., Inc. v. Debtdomain GLMS Pte LTD., et al.
Case No. 09-cv-07589 (LAK) (KNF)*

Dear Judge Fox:

We represent plaintiff Fidelity Information Services, Inc. ("Fidelity") in the above action. We write to request a two-week extension of time to respond to defendants' Motion For Imposition of Sanctions Upon Plaintiff for Spoliation of Evidence (the "Spoliation Motion"). Defendants' motion is supported by a twenty-five page brief (filed under seal), and a declaration with twenty-four (24) voluminous exhibits attached thereto (also filed under seal).

Given the size of defendants' filing, and the fact that Fidelity would only have seven days under Local Rule 6.1(a) (i.e., up to September 21, 2010) to file opposition papers, we requested a two-week extension from defendants' counsel, pursuant to which Fidelity's opposition would be due October 5, 2010. However, defendants' counsel would only agree to a seven-day extension such that Fidelity's opposition would be due September 28, 2010 (and with the requirement that defendants be granted two weeks to respond).

Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Court grant a two-week extension of time so that we may respond to defendants' spoliation motion by Tuesday, October 5, 2010. We would be agreeable to defendants having two weeks thereafter, up to October 19, 2010, to submit any reply papers.

The parties shall advise the Court, in a joint writing, whether they wish to have the October 4, 2010 settlement conference go forward.

SO ORDERED:
